

'Tear did,' was the answer, a wee bit of emphasis resting on they. He didn't stay very long, did he? Not as long as I wish he had,' was the emphatic answer this time. And how the ladies did look at each other! It was as good as a confession.

'When did he come?'
'Saturday evening.'
'Was you looking for him?'
'I had been expecting him for a fortnight.'

'Why du tell, if you had then, and you never told orn't either. Had he business in the place?'
'He had.'

'What was it?' This was rather more direct and blunt than Grandma had meant to put, and she forthwith apologized by saying, 'I didn't mean that—only thought—'

'O, I'd as lief you knew as not,' said the lady with a charming air of reserve, 'he came to see me.'

'O, widow C. I didn't your good name go down then. Be careful what you say next, or you'll have only a remnant of character to go home with, and remnants always go cheap.'

'Oh, did he, and didn't come for nothing else then? But was you glad to see him?'
'Indeed I was. It was one of the happiest moments of my existence.'

'Well, well,' said the old lady hardly knowing how to frame her next question, 'well he's a real good looking man any way.'

'I think so too, and he's not only good looking, but he's got hearted one of the best men I ever knew.'

'You don't say so! But is he rich?'
'Worth a hundred thousand or so,' said the lady carelessly.

'Why, du tell, if he is. Why, you'll live like a lady, won't you? But what's his name?'
'Henry Macon.'

'Macon? Macon? Why wasn't that your name before you were married?'
'It was.'

'Then he's a connection, is he?'
'He is.'

'Du tell, if he is then? not a cousin, hope—I never did think much of marriages between cousins.'

'Henry is not my cousin.'
'He isn't. Not your cousin. But connection is he, then, du tell, now.'

'He is my youngest brother.'

If ever there was rapid progress made in sewing and knitting, by any circle of ladies, it was by those composing this society, for the next fifteen minutes. Not a word was uttered, not an eye raised. Had the latter been done, and the rough and expressive glances which passed between Mrs. C. and the minister, who unobserved had stood on the threshold, a silent spectator and curious hearer, perhaps, they might have guessed more correctly the name, character, standing and profession of the widow's beau.

As EXCELLENT JOKE.—The Lynchburg (Va.) Express states that among the many beautiful strangers who graced the ball given in that city in Thomas S. Babcock and his lovely bride, appeared one who was introduced as the daughter of the distinguished gentleman from Wytheville, now a member of the board of public works. The surpassing loveliness of her face, the gracefulness of her form, her engaging manners, and the distinctive style of her dancing, added to the respect entertained in this city for her father, made her a talk at once. Crowds of fashionable young gentlemen thronged around her, collecting the honor of her hand for the dance. Each vied with the other in paying her the most delicate attentions, and the jealousy which naturally springs up among rivals was on more than one occasion visible among the applicants for the "next set." Indeed, but for the modest, kind yet fair demeanor of the fair stranger, there is no telling what collisions might have taken place among the warring suitors. Nor were the attentions paid her confined to the opposite sex. Many of our loveliest ladies sought an introduction to her, and invited her to their homes. She regretted her inability to accept the hospitalities tendered to her, and pleaded as an excuse that she was about to leave the next day for school, in Richmond. It is said that at least half dozen young gentlemen were engaged to escort her to supper, and that no end of money was privately expended with hackmen to convey her home.

But, behold! when supper was announced, the lovely Miss B., was nowhere to be found. A strict search was instituted, but to no purpose. The bird had flown, and many young gentlemen were inconsolable because of her flight. Champagne failed to solace them, and so many seats were taken for Richmond that an extra stage was ordered. When morning came, however, what was the astonishment and indignation of the enamored gentlemen to learn that their incalculable acquaintance was a youth of Lynchburg, dressed in his sister's clothes! It was even so. Two of our sprightliest belles, unable by reason of clerical indiscretion, to attend the ball, determined to have their own fun out of it; and accordingly, dressed up their brother in full suit of male gear, painted his cheeks, crowned him with a garland of flowers, and trusted to the mysterious art of managing his strange suit, and giving him a letter of introduction to one of the managers, put him into a hack and bid him God speed. The gallant manager, proud of his fair charge, displayed a mischievous energy in introducing her to every body; the young lady played her part so admirably that the old one himself never have suspected him, and the trick passed off so successfully, that it is now universally and justly accounted the best thing that ever happened in Lynchburg.

WASHINGTON, April 11.
SENATE.—Mr. Badger moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the bill allowing limited credit of five years on railroad iron imported.

Mr. Mason moved to go into executive session, which was not concurred in. The Senate then took up Mr. Badger's bill.

Mr. Douglas moved a substitute, suspending the collection of duties from the 1st July last to July, 1887, on all the iron imported since July, 1883, and prior to the passage of this act, for the purpose of being applied to the construction or repair of any road.

Mr. Badger said his object was to give encouragement in railroads, and intimated that he would accept the amendment.

Mr. Seward opposed the bill, taking the ground that a temporary suspension would be equivalent to its permanent repeal. He said he was willing, however, to make iron for the Pacific railroad an exception.

Mr. Badger objected to a postponement and he gave his reasons for it, viz: the absence of the Pennsylvania Senators. He said no one knew the time when both the Senators would be present, or could any one say they ever would be both present at the same time. A postponement of the bill till they were present would amount to an indefinite postponement.

Mr. Pratt said one of them would be here to-morrow. The other was detained in Harrisburg by severe illness.

The bill was finally postponed till Monday week.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House, after the disposal of some unimportant business, resumed the consideration of the bill introduced by Mr. Bennett, granting public lands equally to all the States to aid in the construction of railroads and the support of public schools.

Mr. Bennett asked the postponement of the bill for a fortnight.

Mr. Jones moved to lay it on the table; negatived—yeas 65, nays 76.

On motion of Mr. Campbell, the House went into committee of the whole on the general appropriation bill.

Mr. Cullen, of Tenn., having the floor, made a powerful speech against the Nebraska bill. He denounced Senator Douglas and pronounced the measure a trick for the Presidency.

When he had concluded, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 12, P. M.
SENATE.—The chair presented a letter from Truman Smith, of Connecticut, resigning his seat in the Senate, to take effect the 24th of May next.

The resolution of Mr. Fish calling for the correspondence of Mr. Barnard while U. S. Minister to Berlin was adopted.

Mr. Hunter reported back the Indian appropriation bill with amendments.

Mr. Rusk introduced a bill providing for the transportation of the U. S. mails on railroads. This bill provides that all railroad companies, or individuals owning railroads, who shall contract with the government for carrying mails, troops, or munitions of war free of charge and allowing the P. M. General to regulate the manner and time for transportation, shall be allowed to import, free of duty, all iron required for the use and repair of such roads, and also granting to all companies who shall construct a substantial double track road six sections of public land for each mile of such double road. Referred.

After an executive session of three hours the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Columbus Lancaster, the delegate from Washington territory, appeared and took the usual oath of office to support the constitution of the United States.

The bill empowering the Postmaster General to contract for carrying the mails between New Orleans and San Francisco according to the time occupied was taken up, and, after debate, on motion of Mr. Kerr, the bill was tabled—yeas 87, nays 50.

The House then went into committee on the bill reducing and graduating the price of public lands according to the time they have been in market.

After some debate under the five minutes rule, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Spurious Bills upon the Farmers Bank.—Spurious bills of the denomination of three dollars, purporting to be upon the Farmers Bank of Ky., are in circulation. The signature is entitled, hogs, &c. Signed J. B. Temple, Cashier, and payable at Mayville. All three dollar notes purporting to be upon that bank are spurious. The Farmers Bank has no three dollar notes of any kind.—Frankfort Com'r.

Female Schools in Kentucky.
MR. HENRY R. FRANCH: Respected Sir—

It must be very gratifying to every true friend to intelligence and refinement to learn that there are many very excellent schools in Kentucky where young ladies are now being taught the various branches of a thorough and useful education. This is just as it should be. The kind and character of female influences brought to bear upon society have much to do with its intelligence, morality, improvement and happiness. All thinking men know and acknowledge the potency of this influence.

Among the many good Female Schools of the State, highly worthy of success and notoriety, I would say, without intending to disparage others, in the least, that "Science Hill Female Academy," under the superintendence of Rev. John Tevis and Lady, at Shelbyville, deserves a favorable notice.

Its Principal and Founder, Mrs. Julia A. Tevis, in my opinion, stands in the very first class of instructresses. Possessing naturally the highest order of mind, strengthened and refined by an intimate acquaintance with the various branches of knowledge; having the experience afforded by thirty years spent in teaching being gifted, in an extraordinary degree, with the tact of governing and guiding the youth of her own sex; blessed with the kindest heart of the mother, the clearest head of the teacher, and the most accomplished and winning manner of the lady, she occupies an exalted position among instructresses, and richly deserves all the praise that may be properly bestowed on women.

Order, regularity, neatness, plainness, punctuality, morality, piety, thorough scientific instruction characterize the Institution. As evidence of the public appreciation of this School, it may be stated, that more than 200 young ladies are now enjoying the privileges and advantages of being instructed by Mrs. Tevis and her corps of able assistants. In conclusion, I would remark, (having good reasons for so doing,) that had I a dozen daughters to be educated from home, Mrs. Julia A. Tevis should have the care and instruction of them all.

GRANT.
Public Wants.

Immediate and decisive answers are wanted to the following questions:

How to gain a reputation for talent in your native town.

How to give advice to, argue with a fool.

How to borrow money on the plea of extreme poverty.

How to get long credit of tradesmen, if they generally see you in shabby clothes.

How to make your children tell lies for you, and not teach them to tell lies for themselves.

How to get reputation for judgment unless you are a hater of jokes.

How to make evasive excuses without incurring the guilt of lying.

How to screw down a mechanic below the fair living price of a job, and not at the end cheat yourself.

How to amass wealth without selling yourself to the devil.

How to substitute a word in a newspaper communication as "moon" for "lunar orb," without provoking a philological controversy as voluminous as the diversions of Parley.

How to edit a paper to the satisfaction of both magpies and owls.

How to write solid editorials when your head snaps with the headache, as if it were filled with fourth of July crackers, popping off seriatim.

WOMEN IN PRINTING OFFICES.—At the recent Printers Convention at Springfield, Ill., the following preamble and resolution were offered, and which were adopted by a vote of 11 yeas to 3 nays:

"Whereas, The employment of females in printing offices as compositors, has wherever adopted been found a decided benefit, both as regards the moral tendencies inculcated, and the dependence to be placed in their constant presence and attendance upon the duties required of them; and as a means of opening a wider field of remunerative labor to a deserving class of society; therefore,

Resolved, That this Association recommends in its members the employment of females in their offices, wherever, and whenever practicable."

For the Herald.

Dear Sir: In this remarkable stage of our political history, the age in which politics have become the rival of religion—striking in interest the old tale of the meek and lowly Jesus the age in which clergymen have turned politicians, and prostituted the sacred desk consecrated to religion, to the low and grovelling station of a stand for political demagoguery. This is the age in which thousands of clergymen are satisfied with preaching politics at home, have petitioned the highest civil power in our land in the name of the living God to do as they direct. They hold the position in one hand, and in the other they hold the threatening hellhounds of G. d's wrath ready to loose them if the Senate should not comply with their spiritual version of politics. This looks in my eyes far more objectionable than any religiously political move that has been perpetrated in this country. This was done by over righteous puritanical New England. Permit me Mr. French to say through the columns of the Herald to Friend Pinkerton of the Era, season as a copy of Blue laws can be obtained he shall have the pleasure he anticipates; I hope he will bear in mind that there is a great difference between the letter of the laws and the spirit of the laws. I said the Maine law, was born of the same spirit that generated the blue laws. I regret Mr. Pinkerton's ignorance of them. These laws are a specific code enacted by a set of secularists who expected to make men moral by force (as Mr. P. would make men temperate) visiting a severe penalty for every slight offence against their interpretation of God's will. One very strong objection to the Blue laws was the disproportion between the merits of the crime and the severity of the penalty. The Maine Law has the same objections and is quite as oppressive. The whole of the Blue Laws, and the Maine Law, is founded upon a species of legislation that is exceedingly oppressive and deprives us of rights, which nature seems to have guaranteed to us.

New England has made greater strides towards the reunion of church and state, than any part of our country. Roman Catholics are or have been disqualified to fill state offices. The harmless inoffensive Quakers whose honesty is proverbial have been most shamefully persecuted.

Men of fine intellectual abilities whose characters are far less faulty than the characters of either Sampson, Lot, Noah, Jonah, David, Solomon, or Peter, have been disqualified to testify in court because in their minds the bible had not sufficient evidence of its autenticity to merit belief. Is that granting to men the freedom that our constitution guarantees to us? The Maine Law takes from us, and without compensation destroys our property. Is not the right of property one of the many that the blood of our ancestors was spilt to defend in the Revolution of '76? Society has no right to curtail individual freedom further than to protect herself. Any law not based upon this principle is aggressive and tyrannical and in opposition to the true principle of civil freedom. The beauty of a Republican form of government is that the people who are the law making power, make laws to govern themselves, and the principle of self-preservation forces them to give civil freedom to others in order to enjoy it themselves. The abuse of Republicanism is for a portion of the people to sign away their own liberties, and vote away ours. The Sons of Temperance have signed away their liberty to make, handle or use spirituous liquors and would vote away our right to be free than themselves. If a party of Gaiety, gamblers who have no fondness for meat, being the majority of creation, say I shall not use it, does that majority make it right for them to say I shall eat no animal food. Would not that be forcing the unequal yoked works of nature to suit the iniquity that fit themselves? What but the Maine Law would be equally oppressive. If it is such a virtue to form men to do right, why did not God command and Christ continue the work? Fesus the music' brother Pinkerton you have been preaching long enough to tell us. No dodging. No one objects to the Shakers living according to their peculiar notions. No one objects to a society voluntarily living in accordance to the precepts of the Blue Laws, but we do object to either of these Societies saying how we shall live or how we shall not. If they have a right to say us, we have a right to funnel them. I think we are better judges of our own business than their neighbor can be. I think the Gormandizing, T. barco making, Ambia Squaring, Coffee drinking, TEMPERANCE SOCIETIES, had better pluck a few beans out of their own eyes before picking at the notes in the eyes of their neighbors.

If you by legislative enactments bind us up and say what we shall eat, what we shall or shall not drink what liberty have we left: where line gnan our honest freedom, are we not enslaved. Europe, despotic, monarchial Europe, has no laws that more directly run counter to the natural rights of man than the Maine liquor law. I wish the people to understand distinctly that the Maine law allows us to buy and drink foreign liquors while the fruits of our own labor, liquor of our own manufacture is seized upon and destroyed. There is a demand for liquor as a beverage and there will be so long as appetite reigns over reason or until the intellect is weakened to its evil effect. If liquor will be drunk it is philanthropic to present that for use which will be the least injurious. 'Old Bourbon' whisky and Cawaba wine have no equals, to that respect they are the best liquors we have; the Maine law would strip their bring manufactured and in their place put just such an article as temperance lectures describes. Is it just, honest, philanthropic or humane when the disease of opium proves genuine liquor to supply its place with rank poison. A man or a set of men that will either direct or indirectly supply the demand for 'Old Bourbon' with the miserable drugged descriptions that every temperance lecturer describes, are much nearer being murderers than the much abused hotel keepers of our country, that sell a genuine article. I think the inebriate needs and is entitled to our sympathy, I think it is a duty incumbent upon every man to do all in his power to ameliorate the deplorable condition of the drunken man, to convince him of his error, to encourage him to pursue the right course, encourage him in well doing, let him feel he has freedom at least as much as G. d gave Adam in the garden of Eden. The Maine law does not suppose the sale of liquor prevents the sale of our own; which we know to be pure. The Maine law may prevent

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE subscriber wishes to sell The House and Lot in which he now resides, situated on Main Street, in Georgetown, Ky., adjoining the Georgetown Hotel. The house is of brick, containing nine rooms, a back porch the length of the house, besides kitchen, servants' rooms and all necessary outbuildings, including stable, carriage house, &c., all in good repair; the lot fronts on main street 120 feet, and running back (in part) to Water street, and is considered one of the best places of property in the place; and from its locality, size and general appearance would make a first rate boarding house.

Also—The frame house and lot opposite the above, situated on the east side of Main Street, fronting on said street 160 feet and going back 200 feet to a 30 feet street, and containing 1/2 of an acre; upon this lot there is a never failing spring of good water as is in the town. I consider this a superior lot of ground.

ALSO.
The TAN YAU property adjoining the last mentioned lot, containing 1/2 of an acre and enclosed by a substantial stone fence; there is on this lot a large spring of good water, which has never been known to go dry; a large brick

The Columbia and Great West.

This popular paper commences its thirtieth volume on the 6th of May next. It is the only successful Literary, Family, No. 3 Journal ever published in the West, and offers peculiar advantages to all the friends of Western and Home Interests. By means of the Telegraph, it furnishes all important News and Market Reports several days earlier than the Eastern press. Among its novelties, we notice that on the 6th of May it commences a Novellette, entitled Olinda, or the Mexican's Daughter; to be followed by the Hunter's Revenge, and numerous other Tales by popular writers. It offers, gratis, to every new subscriber, a copy of Miss Dupuy's ASHLEIGH, a Historical Novel of the Revolution, and the PIRATE'S SON-IN-LAW, as Premiums. Besides its Light Reading, it keeps its readers thoroughly posted on all the leading topics of the day—gives copious details of News, Markets, and Miscellaneous—and is, in fact, just the paper for the people. Try it.—TERMS: One copy, one year, $2 00. One copy, six months, $1 00. Four copies, one year, and one to agent six months, $5 00. Eight copies, one year, and one to agent twelve months, $10 00. Thirteen copies one year, and one to agent twelve months, $15 00. Twenty copies, one year, and one to agent twelve months, $20 00. Payment must be made in advance, and the subscription promptly discontinued at the end of the time paid for, unless renewed.

At the assembling of the Presbytery of New York, one of the largest and most influential belonging to that denomination, resolutions were passed urging the absolute necessity of a new foundation on the principle of the Maine Law. It is considered the first ecclesiastical shot at Gov. Seymour's veto.

The ladies of Georgetown and Scott county are referred to the card of Mrs. Rich, of Cincinnati, which will be found in another column. A fair friend of ours, in whose taste and judgment in matters of head gear, &c., we have unlimited confidence, assures us that Mrs. R. is a lady of superior taste, of a very accommodating spirit, and exceedingly moderate in her charges. Her establishment, which is one of the most fashionable and extensive in the city, is 204 Fifth street, between Elm and Plum.

The Indiana Sentinel suggests that when clergymen descend from their high elevation and mingle in the affairs of this world, they should not speak or act in the name of the Almighty, but take the responsibility of their own conduct; for, as they are finite creatures and liable to commit a great many errors, the flock over which they have the pastoral charge might form incorrect notions of the wisdom and goodness of the Divine Being, attributing the short comings and faults of their pastors, to the Great Source of all good.

The Petition of the New England Clergy has not fared well in Congress. Mr. Dougless, Mr. Mason, Mr. Butler and others denounced it as something of a secular assumption which has worked to the body wherever it has existed, and Messrs. Everett and Seward, on the side, spoke of it epilogically and negatively.

Shooting husbands, or rather shooting males, has become a rage in St. Louis, now days. On last Monday afternoon a lady made her appearance on Fourth street, having a noose pistol in her hand, and apparently much excited, looking for her husband with the intention of shooting him. She bolted into Robbin's house, then into the Platters' house, then into various other saloons of the neighborhood, but did not meet him. What was the nature of the husband's offence she did not state.

Elder John Young, of the Christian church, who is well and favorably known throughout Northern Kentucky, has accepted a call from one of the churches in Baltimore, and will leave Mayeville, his present residence, in a few days, with a view to entering upon duty in his new field of labor.

Gov. Powell has appointed Col. A. J. Barry, of Newport, to proceed to England to bring to Kentucky the remains of the late Hon. Wm. T. Barry, in pursuance of a resolution of the Legislature of Kentucky.

Mr. Bancroft has lit down upon Elder Pinkerton like a duck upon a goose bug! We are at a loss which to admire the most the vim of the Artist or the dexterity of the Elder.

Monday, the 17th of April, we had quite a respectable snow storm; and on Monday night a hard frost. We fear that the prospect for fruit, in all this region, is rather dim.

Messrs. Brown & Sayres of Frankfurt, it will be seen from their advertisement in another column, are in the receipt of a large stock of superior liquors, together with a general assortment of groceries, &c.

Fire wood. In consequence of the continued cold weather, has gone up to a pretty high figure in town. If this cold snap continues, a large quantity of wood might be disposed of at 50 per cent above customary rates.

The order of "Know Nothings" has become of some importance from the large number of members. Their advertisement reads thus:

KNOW NO THING 10 S.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

The America has arrived. Sales of cotton at Liverpool 30 000 bales—New Orleans fair 64, upland fair 6, upland middling 54d. The demand is moderate, and prices have declined 1d per pound. Holders are pressing on the market. Sales to speculators 1,000 bales, and to exporters 3,000 bales. Flour—Ohio 28s. Corn—yellow 42s, white 43s.

The Queen has announced to Parliament the Czar's refusal to the ultimatum, and war is expected immediately.

The Herman has also arrived.

New York, April 14.

The Hermann brings dates to the 29th. The Nashville arrived out on the 27th.

The Queen's message to Parliament on the 29th concluded that she replied on the bravery of the army and navy in the present emergency. The declaration of war appears in the London Gazette of the 29th, and the same day the legislature of Paris received a message from Emperor Napoleon declaring that Russia had placed herself in a state of war with France, and the French Government announces that it will not grant letters of marque.

A cabinet courier had been dispatched from England and France to Russia with the ultimatum, and he returned with the announcement that no reply would be made. The result has been announced by the Queen to the cabinet.

The war great excitement in Russian produce, and hemp, cotton, and grain had advanced at Liverpool, and large speculative purchasers of American flour were made at 4s advance. Richardson quotes Baltimore and Ohio flour firm at 3s 6d, white wheat 11s 6d red and mixed 10s 6d 11s; white corn 42s 43s, mixed 41s 42s 6d.

Liverpool, 29th.—Cotton is flat at a decline of 1d for American. Mottley quotes beef scarce and wanted; pork firm, bacon steady, and lard advanced 2s 3d.

Wheat has advanced in some cases 18d—the average advance is 1s. Corn has advanced 4s above the Europe's quotations. Money tight.

It is reported that Austria was inclined toward the Western powers. This report is coupled with the rise in English consols, and caused a rally at the Paris Bourse; it's closed at 62 60, and after the regular bourse was done at 62 84; it's at 62 80.

The failure of Seely, Dechnrell, & Co., bankers, of Paris, is announced. Trade at Manchester is a most suspended.

The Emperor Napoleon's announcement was received in both chambers with extraordinary enthusiasm.

The Russian fleet has left Sebastopol to provision the Russian fortresses on the Crimean coast.

The overland China mail reached London with dates from Calcutta to the 16th, and Hong Kong to the 11th. Trade at Calcutta was fair.

Shanghai was in possession of the patriots. The rebel army was wintering near Peking.

Exchange at Shanghai and Peking was falling.

Revenues from the gold fields are increasing, and new rich mines have been discovered.

The following is the Queen's declaration of war: Her Majesty, the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, is compelled to take up arms in support of an ally, and is desirous of rendering it as little onerous as possible to the powers with whom she remains at peace, and to preserve the commerce of the neutral powers from all unnecessary obstructions. Her Majesty is willing at present to waive a part of her belligerent rights appertaining to her by the law of nations, but it is impossible for her Majesty to forego the exercise of her rights in seizing articles contraband to war, and from preventing the neutral powers from bearing the enemy's despatches; and she must maintain the rights of a belligerent to prevent the neutral powers from breaking an effective blockade with an adequate force against our enemies in force, harbors, or coasts, but her Majesty will waive the right of seizing the enemy's property loaded on board of neutral vessels, unless it be contraband of war. It is not her Majesty's intention to claim the confiscation of neutral property not being contraband of war, found on board of the enemy's ships, and her Majesty further declares, that, being anxious to lessen as much as possible the evils of war, and to restrict its operations to the regular organized forces of the country, it is not her intention to issue letters for privateering.

Sir Charles Napier's fleet anchored off Kiel on the 27th.

Eighteen thousand Russians crossed the Danube on 23d, and 35,000 crossed at Mechin without molestation.

A skirmish occurred between the Russians and Turks on a bridge at Island Tule. During the engagement 2,000 Russians were precipitated into the river and drowned.

The Duke of Parma was stabbed by an assassin and died the next day.

Vienna, Friday.—A dispatch has just been received, announcing that, on the 29th, the Russians attacked Kalafet and took three redoubts.

The rupture between Greece and the Sultan is complete.

Dates from Constantinople since that the steamers Retribution and Canton have returned from the mouth of the Danube without succeeding in tracing its mouth from obstructions.

London, Saturday morning.—The debate in Parliament on the address of the Queen was very long, and war was formally proclaimed yesterday at the Royal Exchange.

FATAL AFFRAY AT ELLETSVILLE, IND.—On Tuesday evening last, a number of young men at Ellettsville, Monroe county, on the line of the New Albany railroad, undertook to demolish a house in which an old man lived with a woman of doubtful repute. They assailed the house with stones and other missiles. The old man at length came to the door and fired a pistol into the crowd, the ball striking a young man named Hugh Butler, son of Judge Butler, of Bloomington. Butler was taken to a physician, who declared the wound was not dangerous, whereupon Butler and his companions returned to the assault. They got the old man out of doors, and had him on the ground beating him over the head with a stone, when he drew a knife and stabbed Butler, the wound causing his death in a short time after.

The Charleston Convention.

MONDAY, April 10.

After conference and consultation of the various delegates apart, the General Committee on business and resolutions, was constituted as follows:

Maryland—Wm. Creighton, Geo. Bartlett, Joshua Jones.

Virginia—James Lyons, Myer Myers, Oden G. Clay.

North Carolina—Dr. J. H. Gibbon, P. K. Dickinson, A. J. DeRosier, Jr.

South Carolina—Jas. Chestnut, Jr., C. G. Memminger, H. Guordon.

Georgia—Nelson Tift, E. A. Nisbat, Hiram Roberts.

Florida—Benj. F. Whitner, J. B. Brown, Stanislaus Grisham.

Alabama—Daniel Coleman, N. J. Scott, N. Luckett.

Louisiana—Samuel W. Oakley, David J. Hook, John B. Leefe.

Mississippi—J. W. Clapp, T. A. Marshall, R. A. Crump.

Tennessee—W. H. Polk, J. Knox Walker, Gen. W. C. Ryle.

Texas—Mr. Ray.

Kentucky—Gen. Leslie Combs, Lieut. M. F. Meory.

In relation to this appointment, a few words of explanation may be given. Lieut. Meory, a native of Tennessee, represents here the District of Columbia, so far as his present official residence is concerned, but was also a specially invited and most welcome participant in the deliberations. On the call for Kentucky, however, Gen. Leslie Combs arose and stated that he was there alone in the representation of that State, and would esteem it a particular honor if he could obtain the loan of Lieut. Meory's name and services.

The proposition was met by a general round of applause, and the President remarking that he would relieve the delegate from Kentucky from the dilemma of appointing himself a committee, asked leave to assign the representation to the State as above given. The appointment was also hailed with general satisfaction, and the gallant "State of Ashland" will not repudiate also conscriptive citizenship thus given to a distinguished and meritorious son of a sister State.

Sam. Keene, a very accommodating and clever gentleman, has a lot of first rate COGNAC, which he is selling almost at cost. Also, a fine quality of English Dairy, Pine Apple Cheese, and a general assortment of Family Groceries, which he is selling cheap for cash or on short time to punctual customers. Give him a call.

According to the late census, Methodists are the largest denomination in the United States, having a membership of more than two million and a quarter. These are all communicants, and if we add three hearers for each member, a very small estimate, it will appear that the Methodists clergy are the religious teachers of nearly four millions of our fellow-citizens, or one-sixth of the entire American population.

WAS, RESIGNED, DEPOSED IN SPIRITS, and a prey to innumerable mental as well as physical evils, the victim of dyspepsia is indeed an object of commiseration. Yet it is absurd for him to despair. We are not how low, weak, nervous and irritable he may be, the cordial properties of Hood's Kidney Pills, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, are stronger than the many-headed monster which he is preying upon his body and mind; and if he chooses to try them, we will insure a speedy cure.

April 20, 1854 6 21.

AGUE AND FEVER of three years standing CURED.—Mr. John Longdon, now living at Beaver Dam, Hancock County, Va., near Richmond, had Ague and Fever for three years, most of the time he had chills twice a day, and rarely less than once; he was parched with fever as soon as the chill left him, and after trying physicians quinine, most of the tonic advertised, and every thing recommended in him, was about to give up in despair, when Carter's Spanish Mixture was spoken of he got two bottles, but before he had used more than a single one, he was perfectly cured, and has not had a chill or fever since.

Mr. Longdon is only one out of thousands who have been benefited by this great tonic, alterative and blood purifier.

MARRIAGES.

MARRIAGE.—At the residence of R. P. Snell, Esq., on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst., by Elder John Smith, William Emison (son of David Emison) to Miss Lucy Snell, all of Scott County.

We tender our cordial congratulations to the young couple, who failed not beautifully to remember the promise.

May heaven its choicest blessings shower. On Willy's fair and lovely flower! And may their nuptial bow never bear—An angel guest—of Heaven—an heir!

SAVE YOUR ICE

AND DRINK PURE WATER.

Economical, Convenience and Luxury Combined.

WINCHELL'S WATER COOLERS.

THE season is again at hand when the use of ice becomes indispensable to the comfort and health of every family.

The undersigned has for several years past been engaged in the manufacture of the above named article, and has devoted much time and labor in perfecting them. Knowing their great utility, economy and convenience, must bring them into very general use. They have become indispensable to every house-keeper. The fact has been demonstrated beyond question, that they will preserve ice longer than any other device which has been brought out for that purpose. The convenience of always having a FRESH WATER ready for drinking, is fully appreciated by those who have used this article.

The undersigned has larger and better facilities for manufacturing Water Coolers, than any establishment in the country, and is now prepared to supply them in any quantity.

To Merchants and others buying for resale, liberal discount is made. They can be packed and shipped to any part of the country with perfect safety.

An Enlarged Edition.
The Philadelphia Ledger publisher from its books a list of its circulation for every day of the present year. The lowest edition printed was fifty-one thousand three hundred and sixty, on the 12th of January, and the highest, sixty thousand, on Saturday, the 4th of March. This is an enormous circulation, and exceeds that of any other paper in the world. The London Times prints about 40,000 daily, the Paris Constitutionnel 25,000, and the New York Herald claims over 30,000. The Ledger's statement shows that from January 2d to the 18th inst., inclusive, about two regular months and a half, February being a short month, there have been consumed upon the regular daily editions of the Ledger, seven thousand four hundred and ninety-two and three-fourths reams of paper making at the rate of over seventy thousand reams of paper per annum. It shows the aggregate of the daily editions for the two and a half months to be three millions five hundred and ninety-six thousand five hundred and twenty, or exceeding at the rate of seventeen millions of copies per annum. This includes neither extras nor weekly papers. Two of the fast eight cylinder presses are used by the Ledger in printing this immense edition, and it concludes its statement with an apt comparison of these rapid machines with the old mode of printing with hand presses:
By the old mode of printing with a handpress, it would have taken, at ten tokens per day, which is pretty good work for ten hours, fifty days to have printed this edition; and to have printed only during the five or six hours, within which time the Ledger ought to be printed, it would have taken nearly one hundred days.

COLONIZATION.—Charles Henderson, Esq., of Danville, Ky., has emancipated 22 of his slaves to go to Liberia under the direction of the Kentucky Colonization Society, in the Mar expedition from this State. He has also purchased the husband of one of his women servants at the price of $1,000. He gives to them all a full outfit, and to the Kentucky Colonization Society $500.

G. W. WHITTON,
J. T. HENSLEY.

Having bought the entire interest of G. W. Whitton in the late firm I will continue the business at the old stand where I will be pleased at all times to wait upon my old Customers and as many others as may favor me with a call.

Thereby express my sincere thanks to those who have heretofore favored the house with their liberal patronage, and assure myself that by my increasing efforts to please, to merit a continuance thereof in the future.
Believing that the fastest system in selling Goods is to have Uniform Prices.

I will be compelled to sell at much smaller profit than can possibly be afforded where long credits are given; under my present cash and short credit system the necessity for charging large profits does not exist, and by selling my goods at a very small advance on cost, I mean to make it the interest of every Judge of goods who may favor me with a call, to purchase.
J. T. HENSLEY.

READ THIS—MEDICINE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—DR. HALL, continues to be consulted at his Office, No. 1 Union Block, west entrance, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. H. has now the gratification of presenting the afflicted with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them failed to cure the most alarming cases.

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.
Be careful of your health, all the horrors of Gonorrhea, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the regions of Procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Hemorrhoids, Piles, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailments of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. H. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, and which the unfortunate individual for either business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are, weakness of the back and limbs, dizziness of the head, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, despondency, nervousness, derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before commencing their marriage, consult a physician of experience and skill and be at once restored to health and happiness.

AGUE AND FEVER cured in 24 hours, warranted.
All cases addressed to Dr. H. Hall, box 1364, Cincinnati. (Medicines sent to any address safely packed and secured from observation.)
Office at No 1 Union Block, Third-street, bet. Scymore and Broadway.

DEAFNESS.
PARTIAL OR TOTAL.
ENTIRELY REMOVED.

DR. ALSOPHER begs to call the attention of those suffering from a total or partial loss of the hearing, to the following facts. He treats diseases of the middle and internal Ear, with MEDICATED DOUCHES.
Such as are practised in the Infirmarys of Berlin, Leipzig, Brussels, Hamburg, &c. St. Petersburg, and lately by the most distinguished London Aurists, with the most wonderful success; indeed, it is the only method that has been uniformly successful. The best proof of the efficacy of the treatment will be a reference to nearly Nine Hundred Names, Residents of the United States, Canada, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia, who have been restored to Auditory Hearing, and not a single solitary case, to our knowledge, did we fail to effect either a partial or total restoration of the hearing, when our advice and instructions were faithfully and punctually followed. Many who could not hear the report of a pistol at arm's length, can now hear a watch beat at the distance of 4 feet.

In cases of mucus accumulation in the Eustachian Tube and Tympanum, Inflammation of the Mucus Membrane, Nervous Affections, Diseases of the Membrana Tympani, commonly called "the Drum," or when the disease can be traced to the effects of Fever, Colds, the use of Quinine, Mercurial Medicines, Gatherings in the Ears in childhood, &c., Dr. Alsopher's treatment stands pre-eminent. Where the Auditory Canal is dry and scaly, with little or no secretion when the deafness is accompanied with noise in the Ear, like falling water, chirping of insects, ringing of bells, rustling of leaves, continual pulsations, discharge of matter, or when, in stooping, a sensation is felt as if a rush of blood to the head took place, when the hearing is less acute in dull, cloudy weather, or when a cold has been taken, this method of treating the disease is infallible.

In Deaf and Dumb Cases
my experience warrants me in saying, that if the hearing was at any time good, very much can be accomplished. In the Deaf and Dumb School at Leipzig, out of a class of 14, I succeeded in restoring Four to acute hearing. Dr. Als. begs respectfully to state, that in those cases he undertakes to

Guarantee a Successful Result
COMPLETE RESTORATION
or
SUCH A MARKED IMPROVEMENT AS WILL BE PERFECTLY SATISFACTORY.
If his remedies are faithfully applied and directions followed.

Applicants will please state their age, duration of disease, if matter issues from the external passage, if there are noises in the Ears, state of general health, and what they suppose to have been the cause of the deafness. When the hearing is restored it is expected that those in easy circumstances will pay liberally.

Medicines, Apparatus, &c.,
Will be sent to any part at my own expense. Address Dr. ALSOPHER, Broadway, Office 424, near 4th street, New York.
Five Dollars—Consultation Fee.

The Largest Jack in Kentucky of his age,
either Imported or Native.
YOUNG SAMSON,

Will make his second season at the stable of W. M. REDMON, one fourth of a mile East of Cynthiana, on the 1st of April and will save Jennets at $40 for a Jack colt, and $25 for a Jennet colt—the money to be paid when the colts come. Any Jennet that is perched with the season will be required. Good grass pasture, furnished by Jennet, if desired, upon the usual terms, but the check for the grain must be paid before the Jennet is taken away.

Samson will be permitted to serve twenty mares at $12 to insure a mare in foal—the money to be paid when the mare is foaled—to be foal or perched with. Greater care will be taken to prevent accidents but no responsibility should be assumed.

Young Samson is 4 years old on the 28th of May next is a dark bay color, is 18 hands high, with larger bone, more length and weight than any Jack in Kentucky of his age. Young Samson, was by Black Samson, the size of more large Jacks in Kentucky of his age. Young Samson, was by a colt of the imported Mammoth Young Samson, dam by Cataline, imported from Spain, and is said to be one of the finest Jacks ever imported from that country. We will give a Silver Fridge, worth $40, for the best Jack colt perched by Samson the present season and a Fridge worth $25 for the best Jennet colt perched by Samson the present season. In a public square, in a yard, in the fall or winter of 1855. We shall select qualified judges to award premiums. Do not write will be given in the "Cynthiana News." Samson has commenced.
